Subject:- A.R.P. INSTRUCTION AND TRAINING.

SIR,

I have the honour to enclose a circular issued to A.R.P. Controllers (including District Magistrates of Districts).

It is proposed to distribute the available trained A.R.P. Instructors on a regional basis with a view to their going round the places in each area rapidly and giving intensive training to volunteers. The further training in the areas may be entrusted to nominees of the respective areas who attended the recent Staff Officers' & Instructors' Course at Bangalore, who may be called local A.R.P. Instructors. It has been arranged that a second Staff Officers' and Instructors Course should be held in Bangalore to train a larger number of persons from Districts and other areas.

Trained Instructors will however be available after completing the first course to give refresher courses or special training, if required, in any place in the areas allotted to them and also to assist the District Magistrates in organising A.R.P. measures in classified towns.

The local A.R.P. Instructors may be allowed a suitable remuneration plus actual travelling expenses for the duration of their employment on training duties. It is suggested that they may be paid Rs.50/- per month.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE.

Officer, Bangalore, as soon as they have sufficient number of volunteers ready to receive training, whereupon the Instructors allotted to their area will be deputed to give intensive training lasting for 4 days at each place. It would be convenient if the A.R.P. Controllers can furnish the Special A.R.P. Officer, a programme indicating the order of places to be visited by the Instructor. The nominees from each District and A.R.P. area who attended the recent Staff Officers' and Instructors' Course at Bangalore City may, if possible, be associated with the Instructor with a view to their being able to take up and continue the instruction work in their own areas subsequently.
